ARCHY AND SOCIETY explores the many ways in which the discipline of Sociology and the philosophy of anarchism are compatible. The book constructs possible parameters for a future 'anarchist sociology', by a sociological exposition of major anarchist thinkers (including Kropotkin, Proudhon, Landauer, Goldman, and Ward), as well as an anarchist interrogation of key sociological concepts (including social norms, inequality, and social movements). Sociology and anarchism share many common interests—although often interpreting each in divergent ways—including community, solidarity, feminism, crime and restorative justice, and social domination.

The synthesis proposed by Anarchy and Society is reflexive, critical, and strongly anchored in both traditions

DANA M. WILLIAMS, Ph.D. (2009), University of Akron, is an Assistant Professor at California State University, Chico. Author of numerous articles for journals include Critical Sociology, Teaching Sociology, Sociology of Sport Journal, and Comparative Sociology.

JEFF SHANTZ, (2006), York University, is a full-time faculty member at Kwantlen Polytechnic University
