Capital finds itself entangled in irresolvable crises. The defense of life and the construction of renewed hope for a future require opposition to the domination of capital. This book contributes to that effort by setting out an analysis of the mechanisms on which capital is based.

José Manuel Sánchez Bermúdez holds a Ph.D. in Political Science (Universidad de Zacatecas, 2008) and is Professor and assistant director for the Economy, State and Society program at the Universidad de Nayarit in Mexico. He has published numerous articles on globalization, neoliberalism and the structures of political domination.
